Return Boat Trip from Plymouth to Calstock

Tuesday 26th September

Join us for a relaxing afternoon/early evening cruise on the River Tamar in early Autumn

The boat leaves Plymouth Barbican at 1.30 pm, returning 5 hours later at 6.30 pm and is run by Plymouth Boat Trips, 2-5 Commercial Wharf, Barbican, PL1 2NX

We'll be crossing the Sound, passing the historic naval dockyard, going under the Brunel and Tamar Bridges and cruising gently upriver to the picturesque village of Calstock with its famous viaduct and quirky little buildings. We'll have an hour to stretch our legs there before the return trip. Feel free to bring a companion (or two). The boat holds 190 passengers, so let's see how many we can achieve!

Pay & Display parking is available nearby at Elphinstone and Lambhay Hill car parks. Alternatively there are Park and Ride termini at the George Hotel on the A386 Tavistock Road and at Coypool, just off Marsh Mills roundabout on the A38. The Barbican area is quite a walk from North Road Station but several buses run to the City Centre, from where it's just a short stroll.

Cost: £24 per member, £26 for non-members

CLOSING DATE: 21st August
